Introduction:

This informs announces the first edition of CSA Standard C22.2 No. 203.2-14: Powered table systems for residential and commercial use.

Background and Rationale:

CSA Standard C22.2 No. 203.2-14 covers requirements for 120V cord-connected single circuit wiring systems for use with free standing interconnected tables provided with communication, video, and/or power receptacles that are intended for frequent setup and breakdown. The requirements in CSA Standard C22.2 No. 203.2-14 are derived from CSA Technical Information Letter (TIL) CSA A-30, Interim Certification Requirements. With the publication of CSA C22.2 No. 203.2-14, CSA A-30 will be withdrawn. Powered table systems previously certified to CSA A-30 will not be required to be resubmitted to comply with C22.2 No. 203.2-14. New applications will be required to meet the CSA C22.2 No. 203.2-14.
